Welcome to Music in the Vineyards 2015

The musicians, staff and Board of Directors of Music in the Vineyards enthusiastically welcome you to our 21st festival season. Whether this is your first concert or, like so many, you are a longtime attendee, we know you will agree that all aspects of the festival are unique; extraordinary musicians and thrilling performances, exciting artistic programming, intimate winery venues (one in the museum this year), and wine tasting at intermission. This year the four-week festival highlights the music of Franz Schubert, including a Schubertiade at our Sommerfest gala, held at the CIA.

As in the past, this year's festival unites you, our remarkable audience, with world-class musicians from throughout the country and indeed the world. We are grateful for your attendance and for your generous and continuing financial support. We know that the Music in the Vineyards 21st season will reward you for your loyalty.

So, from the first notes to the last, just sit back and enjoy!

Sincerely,

Jim Rockett

President, Board of Directors

Music For The Community

Youth Solo Instrumental Competition

2015 was the second year of our competition for young instrumentalists in grades 10 – 12 residing in Napa, Solano and Sonoma Counties. Winners are awarded a cash prize plus the opportunity to perform at a pre-concert recital as part of the festival. The 2015 final was held on March 23rd at the Lincoln Theater.

The 2015 Winners are:

First Place: Calvin Jin, violin

Second Place: Nathan Scott, piano

The winners' recital will take place on Friday, August 21, 6:30 pm at Silverado Vineyards. The 2016 first prize will be provided by Umpqua Bank

Boys & Girls Club

Once again as part of the festival's outreach work, we held a day of participatory performances at the Boys and Girls Clubs in Napa and American Canyon for ages 6 – 12. These family friendly performances inspire the children to write a song, try an instrument, listen and take part in music.

Napa Valley College

Music in the Vineyards is delighted to return to the Napa Valley College Upper Campus for three weeks of rehearsals this year. The Campus offers a quiet comfortable setting for our musicians and in return we provide the opportunity for students and faculty from the College to drop in at any time to our rehearsals. Students also have the opportunity to interact with our musicians during their breaks and learn more about the music and the lives of professional musicians.

The Meadows of Napa Valley

As part of our outreach activities to the Napa Community we have a new program of free open rehearsals at The Meadows of Napa Valley Retirement Community. There will be two programs for residents on Tuesday, August 4 and Tuesday, August 11 at 2 pm. We are delighted to reach out to community locations where residents cannot easily access our music.

Scholarship Program

For the past three years we have partnered with the Napa Valley Youth Symphony Orchestra in a new program designed to help promising young music students in the Napa Valley keep up with the cost of music lessons. We provide funds to cover the cost of one year of music lessons for deserving high school musicians who are members of the Orchestra.

The 2014/15 recipients are:

Ingrid Ortega, violin

Luisa Ortega, cello

Andrew Ricetti, violin

Jarod Ricetti, trumpet

Luna Buoncristiani, bass

Gisele DeWitt, cello

Andres dela Rosa, violin

This program is made possible through the support of our generous patrons who give to our annual Fund-a-Need program.

Festival Artist Biographies

Daria Adams, violin

ARTISTIC DIRECTORS CHAIR ADOPTED IN
MEMORY OF DIANE DISNEY MILLER

Education: New England Conservatory of Music; SUNY/Stonybrook

Violinist Daria Adams, the founding Artistic Director of Music in the Vineyards along with her husband Michael, is a member of the world-renowned St Paul Chamber Orchestra (SPCO) where she is featured frequently in solo and chamber music performances. An ardent Baroque music lover, Daria is a founding member of the Blue Baroque Band (BBB) made up of colleagues from the SPCO. The BBB was a featured ensemble-in-residence at MITV in 2006 and 2009. Other festival appearances include Bach Dancing and Dynamite Society (WI), Banff; Newport and Cactus Pear Festival. Daria spent four years playing in the Santa Fe Opera Orchestra, where she also took an interest in a musician lurking in the back of the pit, one Michael Adams. She now lives in suburban Minneapolis with her husband, three children (22, 20 and 18), a dog, and a really annoying cat.

Michael Adams, viola

MEMORY OF DIANE DISNEY MILLER

Education: The Eastman School of Music; Mannes College of Music

Violist Michael Adams has carved out a unique career that has lead down many roads: as a chamber musician, an orchestral player, writer on music, radio commentator and producer, host of the Minnesota Orchestra's 'Adventures in Music' family concerts, and, along with his violinist wife Daria, the founding Artistic Director of Music in the Vineyards. As MITV's concert commentator and emcee, his goal is to make the music sound so interesting with stories, explanations and analysis that people can't wait to hear it. Michael joined the viola section of the Minnesota Orchestra in 1988 after a successful stint as a music producer and host for classical WCAL-FM in Minneapolis/St. Paul, and currently for Minnesota Public Radio. He is the father to three children, ages 22, 20 and 18, who can't understand how anyone would be willing to pay to hear their father speak. Michael is an avid bicyclist, enjoys canoe camping in Minnesota's Boundary Waters Wilderness Area, sailing with friends on Lake Superior and planning fantasy vacation trips with his collection of maps.

Francesca Anderegg, violin

ADOPTED BY MICHAEL & PEPPER JACKSON

Education: Harvard; The Juilliard School

Hailed by the New York Times for her "rich tone" and "virtuosic panache," violinist Francesca Anderegg delivers insightful accounts of contemporary and classical music. Through her inventive programming, active composer collaborations, and precise yet impassioned interpretations, Anderegg has earned renown as a musical explorer of the first order. With her husband, the noted Venezuelan-American composer Reinaldo Moya, Anderegg has performed a series of his original works exploring magical realism and other elements of Latin American literature and imagination. She was awarded the Leonore Annenberg Fellowship in the Performing Arts in 2010. Anderegg's debut album, recorded with regular duo partner, pianist Brent Funderburk, was released by Albany Records in July 2012. Anderegg is currently on the violin faculty at St. Olaf College, and has taught at Interlochen Center for the Arts.

Robert Ashley, doublebass

Education: UCLA; San Francisco Conservatory

Born and raised in California, Robert has quickly become one of the most sought-after bassists on the West Coast. After completing his studies at UCLA and the San Francisco Conservatory, Robert won his first orchestral audition for Principal Bass of the Marin Symphony. Since then, Robert has also joined the Berkeley Symphony, Symphony Napa Valley, The Monterey Symphony, and most recently, he was appointed Assistant Principal Bass of Symphony Silicon Valley. Additionally, Robert is a frequent guest with the San Francisco Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic, and Atlanta Symphony. Robert records regularly at Skywalker Ranch, with both the Skywalker Symphony and outside groups. He can be heard on numerous films and video games. Robert loves teaching music and is always excited to meet a new student. He resides in Oakland and maintains a studio in Berkeley.

Victor Asuncion, piano

ADOPTED BY DEBORAH & RAYMOND TONELLA

Education: University of Maryland, College Park

Hailed by the Washington Post for his “poised and imaginative playing,” Victor is recognized as a pianist of innate musical sensitivity, fiery temperament and superb technique. A chamber music enthusiast, he collaborates regularly with artists Lynn Harrell, Zuill Bailey, Cho-Liang Lin, Ronald Leonard, and the Vega and Emerson String quartets. Victor is also sought after as a piano, vocal, and chamber music coach. He was appointed assistant professor at the University of Memphis in 2003 and Director of Piano and Collaborative Arts Studies in 2004. He has been featured at chamber music festivals in Aspen, Santa Fe, Amelia Island, GA and the Bach Dancing and Dynamite Society (WI).

Edward Botsford, doublebass

Education: Rice University; Institut International François Rabbath

Edward Botsford will join the Seattle Symphony in fall 2015. He has been Assistant Principal Bass of the Oregon Symphony since 2010. In November 2014, he gave the Portland, Oregon premier of John Harbison's Concerto for Bass with the Portland Youth Philharmonic and he performs frequently with Portland area chamber music groups including Third Angle, Fear No Music and 45th Parallel. In addition to performing, Edward is very dedicated to teaching the bass. He was a guest artist at the Suzuki Association of the Americas Conference in Minneapolis in 2014 and has taught at workshops around the country. He also maintains a private studio.

Nicholas Canellakis, cello

ADOPTED BY NANCY POLLACEK

Education: The Curtis Institute of Music; New England Conservatory

Hailed as a “superb young soloist” (The New Yorker), Nicholas Canellakis has become one of the most sought-after and innovative cellists of his generation, captivating audiences throughout the United States and abroad. In The New York Times his playing was praised as “impassioned” and “soulful,” with “the audience seduced by Mr. Canellakis's rich, alluring tone.” In the spring of 2015, Mr. Canellakis made his Carnegie Hall concerto debut, performing Leon Kirchner's Music for Cello and Orchestra with the American Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Canellakis is an artist of The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center and a member of The Canellakis-Brown Duo, in which he collaborates with the pianist/composer Michael Brown in recitals throughout the country each season. He has been featured at the festivals of, Santa Fe, La Jolla, Music@Menlo, Ravinia, Verbier, Mecklenburg, Moab, Bridgehampton, Sarasota, Aspen and at the Bargemusic series in New York City. He is on the faculty of the Brooklyn College Conservatory of Music and is the Co-Artistic Director of the Sedona Winter Music Fest in Arizona.

Jean-Michel Fonteneau, cello

ADOPTED BY MICHAEL & SUSANNA STEINBERG

Education: Ecole Normale Supérieure De Musique De Paris

Cellist Jean-Michel Fonteneau is a founding member of the Ravel String Quartet, winner of a French Grammy Award for "Les Victoires de la Musique Classique." The quartet toured extensively around the world and singlehandedly created the first ever string quartet residency program in France. A passionate and devoted teacher, Jean-Michel served on the faculty of the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique in Lyon, France, until 1999, when he moved to the United States to join the faculty of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. Jean-Michel has also appeared at the Yellow Barn Festival, Domaine Forget, Oberlin at Casalmaggiore, Mya and Aria music festivals.

Aloysia Friedmann, viola

ADOPTED BY MICHAEL & PEPPER JACKSON

Education: The Juilliard School

Founder and Artistic Director of the Orcas Island Chamber Music Festival in the Pacific Northwest, Aloysia Friedmann's broad-ranging career has included national and international tours, performances with New York's most prestigious musical ensembles including the Orchestra of St. Luke's, and a special onstage role on Broadway alongside Dustin Hoffman in The Merchant of Venice. The New York Times praised her "fiery spirit" after her Carnegie Recital Hall debut. Chamber Music America recognized Ms. Friedmann's artistic leadership with its 2008 CMAAclaim Award and she was a member of the 2011 CMA National Conference Committee. A Houston resident, Ms. Friedmann performs with the River Oaks Chamber Orchestra and the Houston Grand Opera in addition to chamber concerts with Da Camera, Context and at the Shepherd School of Music. Her other festival appearances include those of Hong Kong, Santa Fe, Seattle, Sun Valley, ID, and Sonoma Valley's Green Music Festival. Equally at home on the violin or viola, at Music in the Vineyards Aloysia will perform on her vintage Grancino viola (circa 1675) that was once owned by British composer and violist Rebecca Clarke.

Zlatomir Fung, cello

ADOPTED BY LACHLAN REED & ESTREYA KESLER

Sixteen-year old cellist Zlatomir Fung is a student of Richard Aaron and Julie Albers. Zlatomir won the gold medals at the 2015 Johansen Competition, the 2014 Stulberg String Competition and the 29th Irving M. Klein International String Competition. He has appeared on NPR's From the Top four times, as well as on Performance Today. He is an avid chamber music player and he has performed with the Jupiter Symphony Chamber Players, the Walden Chamber Players, the Arneis Quartet, as well as A Far Cry ensemble. His summers have been spent at the Heifetz International Music Institute, Luzerne Music Center, Greenwood Music Camp, MusicAlp and the Aspen Music Festival. Outside of music, Zlatomir enjoys philosophy and literature, and plays chess competitively. He lives in Westborough, MA and is homeschooled through the Oak Meadow School in Vermont.

Music in the Vineyards is happy to have once again partnered with the Irving M. Klein International String Competition. Every year, the winner performs at the festival as part of the prize. kleincompetition.org

Ara Gregorian, violin

ADOPTED BY JOAN & DONALD TRAUNER

Education: The Juilliard School

Known for his thrilling performances and musical creativity, Gregorian made his New York recital debut in 1996 in Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall and his debut as soloist with the Boston Pops Orchestra in Symphony Hall in 1997. Since that time he has established himself as one of the most sought-after and versatile musicians of his generation. Ara has taken an active role as a performer and presenter of chamber music as well, as the founder and Artistic Director of the Four Seasons Chamber Music Festival in Greenville, North Carolina, which will be celebrating its 15th Anniversary Season. Ara has appeared at the music festivals of Santa Fe, Skaneateles, Bach Dancing and Dynamite Society, Cactus Pear and Bravo! Vail. Gregorian is the Four Seasons Chamber Music Festival Distinguished Professor of Violin at East Carolina University where he has been on the violin faculty since 1998.

David Harding, viola

ADOPTED BY STEPHEN & LORI JUELSGAARD

Education: The Juilliard School

David Harding has an extensive solo and chamber music career, having performed throughout Europe, the United States, Canada, Central America and Australia, in such venues as the Berlin Philharmonie, Amsterdam's Concertgebouw, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. With the flute, viola, harp ensemble Trio Verlaïne, David has recorded two CDs. Other notable recordings include Philip Glass' String Sextet and Schoenberg's "Verklärte Nacht" on Orange Mountain Records, Bach's Goldberg Variations with the string trio Triskelion for CBC records and the music of Aaron Jay Kernis with the Chester Quartet. He is currently Professor of Viola and Chamber Music at Carnegie Mellon University and the University of British Columbia, Vancouver. He plays on a viola made by Pietro Antonio della Costa, circa 1750.

Dawn Harms, violin

Education: SUNY/Stonybrook; New England Conservatory of Music

Dawn Harms leads a richly diverse career ranging from chamber musician and concertmaster to violin soloist and conductor. Dawn is a member of the San Francisco Opera Orchestra and also holds the positions of Associate Concertmaster for the New Century Chamber Orchestra and Co-Concertmaster of the Oakland East Bay Symphony. She was recently named Music Director for the Bay Area Rainbow Symphony. Dawn was selected as a Conducting Fellow at the exclusive American Academy of Conducting at the Aspen Music Festival; recent conducting engagements include appearances with the Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra, the Livermore Amador Symphony and Symphony Parnassus. Her recent solo appearances include the Folsom, Paradise (CA), Lincoln

(NB) Symphonies, Symphony Parnassus and the Stanford Symphony Orchestra. A strong advocate for Music Education, Dawn and her "Rhythm Sisters" give Music in the Vineyards workshops annually as part of our outreach program to the Napa Boys and Girls Clubs. Dawn designs and performs her own family performances throughout the United States, New Zealand and Japan. She also serves on the faculty of Stanford University. Dawn performed on her cousin, Tom Waits' CDs Alice and Blood Money and has two solo CDs of her own.

The Horszowski Trio

Jesse Mills, violin

ADOPTED BY ROSEMARY AND GARY RICHARDSON

Raman Ramakrishnan, cello

Rieko Aizawa, piano

Hailed by The New Yorker as "destined for great things," when the members of the Horszowski Trio (Hor-SHOV- ski) played together for the first time, they immediately felt the spark of a unique connection. Many years of close friendship had created a deep trust between the players, which in turn led to exhilarating expressive freedom.

Grammy-nominated violinist Jesse Mills first performed with Raman Ramakrishnan, founding cellist of the Daedalus Quartet, at the Kinhaven Music School over twenty years ago when they were children. In New York City, they met pianist Rieko Aizawa, who, upon being discovered by the late violinist and conductor Alexander Schneider, had made her U.S. debuts at the Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall. Their musical bonds were strengthened at various schools and festivals around the world, including the Juilliard School and the Marlboro Festival. Ms. Aizawa was the last pupil of the legendary pianist, Mieczysław Horszowski, at the Curtis Institute. The Trio takes inspiration from Mr. Horszowski's musicianship, integrity, and humanity. Based in New York City, the members of the Horszowski Trio teach at Columbia University and the Longy School of Music of Bard College.

Eric Kim, cello

ADOPTED BY MELINDA & RALPH MENDELSON

Education: The Juilliard School

Eric Kim has a diverse career performing throughout the United States, Europe, South America, and Middle and Far East as a recitalist, chamber musician and soloist. Born of Korean parents in New York City, Mr. Kim grew up in Illinois where he began piano studies with his mother at age five. Having made his solo cello debut at age fifteen with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, he was a featured soloist with the Juilliard Orchestra on its critically acclaimed tour of the Far East, and has appeared as soloist with the symphony orchestras of Cincinnati, Denver, and San Diego. Eric served as Principal Cello of the Cincinnati Symphony from 1989-2009, then joined the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music faculty at the beginning of the 2009-2010 academic year. He is a teacher and performer at the Aspen Music Festival and School as well as the Music Masters Course in Japan program held in Yokohama, and Tokyo. His past festival appearances have included those of Santa Fe, Savannah, La Jolla, Orcas Island, WA, Angel Fire, NM and Sangat (India).

Hye-Jin Kim, violin

ADOPTED BY JOAN & DONALD TRAUNER

Education: The Curtis Institute of Music; New England Conservatory

Hye-Jin Kim, First Prize winner of the Yehudi Menuhin Competition and Concert Artists Guild International Competition, has been lauded by The Strad for her “heart-stopping, unrivalled beauty ... well-thought out, yet of the moment.” Hye-Jin has performed as soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra, New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, BBC Concert Orchestra, Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra, Pan Asia Symphony (Hong Kong), and the Hannover Chamber Orchestra, where she led the ensemble in Mozart’s A Major Concerto at age twelve. She has appeared at Carnegie Hall, the Kennedy Center, Kimmel Center, Salzburg’s Mirabel Schloss, and in London at St. John’s, Smith Square, and Wigmore Hall. Festival appearances include Marlboro, Ravinia, Music from Angel Fire, Music@Menlo, Bridgehampton, and Prussia Cove. She is currently an Assistant Professor of Violin at East Carolina University in Greenville, NC.

Kristin Lee, violin

ADOPTED BY RON & LAZARINE WOLFSON

Education: The Juilliard School

Hailed by The Philadelphia Inquirer as “splendid” and “superlative,” Kristin Lee, has performed concertos with orchestras throughout the US and abroad, including the St. Louis Symphony, Philadelphia Orchestra, New Jersey Symphony, Ural Philharmonic of Russia, and Korean Broadcast Symphony. As a recitalist, she has performed at Ravinia’s Rising Stars Series, the Salon de Virtuosi at Steinway Hall, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Louvre in Paris, the Kumho Art Gallery in her native Seoul, and throughout northern Italy. A winner of Juilliard’s Concerto Competition and the Aspen Music Festival’s Violin Competition, Kristin was a top prize winner of the 2012 Naumburg Competition, The Astral Artists Auditions in 2010, and Italy’s Premio di Trieste Competition in 2011. As a chamber musician, Kristin has made appearances at the Ravinia Festival, Music@Menlo, La Jolla Summerfest, El Sistema in Caracas, Festicamara de Medellin, and the Perlman Music Program. She is an Artist of the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center and is on the faculty at the Aaron Copland School of Music in Queens College.

Cho-Liang Lin, violin

ADOPTED BY ROGER JORDAN

Education: The Juilliard School

Born in Taiwan, Cho-Liang (“Jimmy”) Lin began his violin studies at the age five. As a seventh grader in Sydney, Lin played for Itzhak Perlman in a master class and heard about Perlman’s teacher, Dorothy DeLay. Two years later, Lin began six years of study with Ms. DeLay at The Juilliard School. His concert career was launched in 1980 with a debut with the New York Philharmonic and Zubin Mehta. Over the course of the next thirty-some years, Mr. Lin has performed as a soloist with virtually every major orchestra in the world. He is music director of La Jolla SummerFest, and the Hong Kong International Chamber Music Festival. In addition, he has been on the faculty at The Juilliard School and is currently professor of violin at Rice University's Shepherd School of Music in Houston. Jimmy has championed many contemporary composers and his efforts to commission new works have led a diverse field of composers to write for him. They include John Harbison, Christopher Rouse, Tan Dun, John Williams, Steven Stucky, Esa-Pekka Salonen, Bright Sheng, Paul Schoenfield, Joan Tower and many more. Mr. Lin performs on either the 1715 Stradivarius named "Titian" or a 2000 Samuel Zygmuntowicz. His albums are heard on Sony Classical, Decca, BIS, Ondine, or Naxos. They have won Grammy nominations and Gramophone Record of the Year.

Lorna McGhee, flute

ADOPTED BY MARIAN J. BERG & DAVID WEHLITZ

Education: The Royal Academy of Music

Scottish-born Lorna McGhee is currently Principal Flute with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. She has performed as guest Principal with Chicago Symphony, London Symphony, London Philharmonic, Academy of St-Martin-in-the-Fields and the Chamber Orchestra of Europe. Before emigrating to North America in 1998, Lorna was co-principal flute of the BBC Symphony Orchestra. As a soloist, Lorna has given concerto performances with the London Symphony Orchestra, Scottish Chamber Orchestra, BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra in the UK, Manitoba Chamber Orchestra, Toronto Philharmonia, & Victoria Symphony in Canada, and Nashville Chamber Orchestra, San Luis Obispo Symphony, Oregon Bach Festival Orchestra and Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. As a chamber musician and recitalist, she has performed in Europe, North America and Australia in such venues as London's Wigmore Hall, Edinburgh International Festival, the Louvre, Paris and the Schubertsaal of Vienna's Konzerthaus. As a member of Trio Verlaine Lorna has recorded "Fin de Siècle," a disc of works by Debussy and Ravel, and "Six Departures", featuring music by Bax and Jolivet and new commissions by Schafer and Cotton.

Most recently, Lorna recorded a flute and piano recital disc with Piers Lane, entitled The Hour of Dreaming for Beep Records.

Pedja Muzijevic, piano

ADOPTED BY KEITH & PRISCILLA GEESLIN

Education: The Curtis Institute of Music; Peabody Conservatory; The Juilliard School

Hailed by critics as a 'thinking' musician with engaging stage presence and a gratifying combination of virtuosity and eloquence, pianist Pedja Muzijevic has defined his 36 year career with creative programming, unusual combinations of new and old music, and lasting collaborations with other artists and ensembles. The London Financial Times eloquently sums him up as "a virtuoso with formidable fingers and a musician with fiercely original ideas about the music he plays." Pedja has appeared with the Atlanta Symphony, Dresden Philharmonic, Milwaukee Symphony, Orquesta Sinfonica in Montevideo, Residentie Orkest in The Hague, St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, Shinsei Nihon Orchestra in Tokyo, and the Zagreb Philharmonic. He has played solo recitals at Alice Tully Hall in New York, Gilmore International Keyboard Festival in Kalamazoo, Casals Hall and Bunka Kaikan in Tokyo, Teatro Municipal in Santiago de Chile, The Frick Collection in New York, National Gallery in Washington, DC, Lane Series at University of Vermont, the Aldeburgh Festival in Great Britain, and many others. His Carnegie Hall concerto debut playing Mozart Concerto K. 503 with Oberlin Symphony and Robert Spano was recorded live and has been released on the Oberlin Music label. Festival appearances include the Bay Chamber Concerts in Maine, a solo recital debut at Chicago's Ravinia Festival, Spoleto USA, Toronto Summer Music Academy, Ottawa Chamberfest and Moab Music Festival.

Kenneth Olsen, cello

ADOPTED BY STEPHEN & LORI JUELGAARD

Education: The Cleveland Institute of Music; The Juilliard School

A native New Yorker, Ken joined the Chicago Symphony Orchestra as assistant principal cello in 2005. He is also a founding member of the East Coast Chamber Orchestra (ECCO), a conductorless string orchestra comprised of young musicians from orchestras and ensembles all over the country. Ken was the first prize winner in the Nakamichi Cello Competition at the Aspen Music Festival and second prize winner at the 2002 Holland-America Music Society Competition. He also has been a participant at the Steans Institute for Young Artists at the Ravinia Festival and at the Tanglewood festival.

Pacifica Quartet

Simin Ganatra, violin
ADOPTED BY RICK & JOANN BOLAND

Sibbi Bernhardsson, violin
ADOPTED BY STEPHEN AND LORI JUELGAARD

Masumi Per Rostad, viola
ADOPTED BY WARREN & MARITZA NELSON

Brandon Vamos, cello
ADOPTED BY RICK & JOANN BOLAND

Recognized for its virtuosity, exuberant performance style, and often-daring repertory choices, over the past two decades the Pacifica Quartet has gained international stature as one of the finest chamber ensembles performing today. The Pacifica tours extensively throughout the United States, Europe, Asia, and Australia, performing regularly in the world's major concert halls. Named the quartet-in-residence at Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music in March 2012, the Pacifica was also the quartet-in-residence at the Metropolitan Museum of Art — a position that has otherwise been held only by the Guarneri String Quartet — and received the 2009 Grammy Award for Best Chamber Music Performance.

Jon Kimura Parker, piano

ADOPTED BY ANNE & GREG EVANS

Education: The Juilliard School

"Stunning!" These words from the Toronto Star echoed glowing reviews for Jon Kimura Parker's CD, Rite, which includes world premiere recordings of his solo piano transcriptions of Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring and Petrouchka. Parker's most recent CD, Fantasy, has garnered similar praise from Classical Candor: "Parker scores with another favorite recording of the year!" A veteran of the international concert stage, Jon Kimura ("Jackie") Parker has performed as guest soloist in New York's Carnegie Hall, Berlin's Philharmonie, Tokyo's NHK Hall, and the Sydney Opera House. He is an Officer of The Order of Canada, his country's highest civilian honor. Unusually versatile, Parker is a founding member of the Montrose Trio with violinist Martin Beaver and cellist Clive Greensmith. The Washington Post's review of their first tour proclaimed them "poised to become one of the top piano trios in the world." This season Mr. Parker debuts his new project Off The Score in a quintet with legendary Police drummer Stewart Copeland, featuring both original compositions and substantial improvisation. His YouTube channel showcases the Concerto Chat video series, with illuminating discussions of the piano concerto repertoire. Upcoming performances include solo appearances with the New York Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony, and the Philadelphia Orchestra. A committed educator, Jon Kimura Parker is Professor of Piano at The Shepherd School of Music at Rice University, and Artistic Advisor of the Orcas Island Chamber Music Festival.

Anna Polonsky, piano

ADOPTED BY MARY & NICHOLAS GRAVES

Education: The Curtis Institute of Music; The Juilliard School

Anna Polonsky is widely in demand as a soloist and chamber musician. She has appeared with the Moscow Virtuosi, the Buffalo Philharmonic, the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, the Memphis Symphony, the Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia and the St. Luke's Chamber Ensemble. She has collaborated with the Guarneri, Orion, and Shanghai Quartets, and with such musicians as Mitsuko Uchida, David Shifrin, Richard Goode, Jaime Laredo, Ida and Ani Kavafian, and Arnold Steinhardt. She is regularly invited to perform chamber music at festivals such as Marlboro, Chamber Music Northwest, Seattle, Music@Menlo, Cartagena (Colombia), and Bard. Polonsky was a recipient of a Borletti-Buitoni Trust Fellowship in 2003, and of the Andrew Wolf Chamber Music Award in 2011. In addition to performing, she serves on the piano faculty of Vassar College.

Joshua Roman, cello

ADOPTED BY JOHN & ULLA BROWN

Education: The Cleveland Institute of Music

Committed to making music accessible to a wider audience, cellist Joshua Roman may be found anywhere from a club to a classroom, performing jazz, rock, or a solo sonata by Bach or Kodály, branding him a “Classical Rock Star” by the press. For his ongoing creative initiatives on behalf of classical music, Roman was named a 2011 TED Fellow. Always seeking unique performance opportunities, Joshua was the only guest artist invited to play an unaccompanied solo during the YouTube Symphony Orchestra’s 2009 debut concert at Carnegie Hall. Joshua was named Artistic Director of Town Music in Seattle in 2007, where he creates programs that feature new works and reflect his eclectic tastes. Before embarking on a solo career, Roman spent two seasons as principal cellist of the Seattle Symphony, a position he won in 2006 at the age of 22. Since that time he has appeared as a soloist with the San Francisco Symphony, Seattle Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic, BBC Scottish Symphony, and Mariinsky Orchestra. He has been a featured soloist at the Caramoor International Music Festival, La Jolla Summerfest and New York’s Mostly Mozart Festival at Lincoln Center. Roman is grateful for the loan of an 1899 cello by Giulio Degani of Venice.

Axel Strauss, violin

ADOPTED BY JOHN & ULLA BROWN

Education: The Juilliard School

The first German artist to ever win the international Naumburg Violin Competition in New York, Axel Strauss has been equally acclaimed for his virtuosity and his musical sensitivity. Axel frequently performs at various music festivals in the US and abroad, taking him to Germany, India, Korea and Japan. At the age of seventeen he won the silver medal at the Enescu Competition in Romania and has been recognized with many other awards, including top prizes in the Bach, Wieniawski and Kocian competitions. Axel has been a featured concerto soloist with the Hamburg Symphony, Seoul Philharmonic, Shanghai Symphony, Utah Symphony, New York Chamber Symphony and the Budapest Philharmonic Orchestra. He maintains a busy performance schedule while serving as Professor of Violin at McGill University in Montreal.

Kyoko Takezawa, violin

ADOPTED BY ANGUS & MARGARET WURTELE

Education: The Juilliard School

Violinist Kyoko Takezawa electrifies audiences with a richness of playing, a virtuosic confidence of feeling, and a fiery intensity that establishes her as one of today’s foremost violinists. She has performed as soloist with the orchestras of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco, Cleveland, Baltimore, Saint Louis, Houston, Toronto, Dallas, Montreal, Detroit and Cincinnati. Abroad, she has been heard with the Academy of St. Martin in the Fields, the London Symphony, the Tonhalle Orchestra of Zurich, Bavarian Radio Symphony Orchestra, the Dresden Staatskapelle, the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra, the Royal Scottish National Orchestra, and the Leipzig Gewandhaus Orchestra. Ms. Takezawa began violin studies at the age of three and at seven toured the United States, Canada and Switzerland as a member of the Suzuki Method Association. At 17 Kyoko attended the Aspen Music School to study with Dorothy DeLay, with whom she continued to study at The Juilliard School until graduating in 1989. In 1986 she was awarded the Gold Medal at the International Violin Competition in Indianapolis and, most recently, she received the prestigious Idemitsu Award for outstanding musicianship. Ms. Takezawa has been given the Guarneri del Gesù “Wieniawski” (1742), on loan to her by the Stradivarius Society in Chicago and most recently she has been loaned the “Viotti” Stradivarius (1704), provided by Nonprofit Organization Yellow Angel.

Tanya Tomkins, cello

ADOPTED BY LONA & BILL HARDY

Education: Royal Conservatory of Music;
The Hague

Tanya Tomkins has appeared worldwide as soloist and in chamber music concerts on baroque and modern cellos in venues including the Concertgebouw in Holland, the Frick Collection, "Great Performances" at Lincoln Center, San Francisco Performances, The Oregon Bach Festival, Olympic Chamber Music Festival, and the Moab Chamber Music Festival. A co-principal cellist in the Philharmonia Baroque and Portland Baroque Orchestras, she is also renowned for her solo Bach Cello Suites, which she has performed recently at Le Poisson Rouge, San Francisco Performances, and the Library of Congress. Her recording of the Suites ("moments of genius" — Gramophone Magazine) is on the Avie label. She has given many master classes, including at Yale, Juilliard and at the San Francisco Conservatory. Together with pianist Eric Zivian, she runs a house concert series that promotes young musicians together at their home in Berkeley. Tanya is currently a member of the Left Coast Chamber Ensemble and is co-artistic director for the new Valley of the Moon Festival in Sonoma.

Ben Ullery, viola

ADOPTED BY STEPHEN & LORI JUELGAARD

Education: Oberlin Conservatory; New England Conservatory; The Colburn School

Ben Ullery is Assistant Principal Viola of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, a position he has held since 2012. Prior to moving to L.A. he spent three seasons as a member of the Minnesota Orchestra. He has also performed frequently with the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra. In the 2015 concert season he appeared as guest Principal of the Detroit Symphony. In addition to his orchestral activities, Ullery is a founding member of the San Julian String Quartet, an ensemble that has played recitals throughout the Los Angeles area including performances as part of the LA Phil's chamber series in Walt Disney Concert Hall. The quartet has also focused on presenting outreach concerts for

L.A.'s underserved communities through the nonprofit organization Street Symphony.

Ullery has been featured recently in chamber music performances on NPR's Performance Today as well as local broadcasts on KUSC in Los Angeles and Minnesota Public Radio. Recent summer festival appearances include the Grand Teton, Mozaic, Aspen, Taos and Tanglewood festivals

The Verona Quartet

ADOPTED BY ROGER JORDAN

Jonathon Ong, violin
Dorothy Ro, violin
Abigail Rojansky, viola
Warren Hagerty, cello

Hailed by critics as "thoughtful, impressive musicians" (Cleveland Classical), the Verona Quartet (formerly known as the Wasmuth Quartet) has won numerous accolades and awards, and is quickly establishing itself as one of the most exciting young string quartets on the scene today. Within two years of their formation, they captured the Second Prize at the Wigmore Hall International Competition in London, the Grand Prize at the Coleman Chamber Music Competition, First Prize/Audience Prize at the Chesapeake International Chamber Music Competition, and the Silver Medal at the Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition. In addition to their performance commitments, the Verona Quartet members are strong proponents of community engagement and education. In the past two years, the quartet has established a relationship with the city of Danville, Illinois, where they curated a concert series and gave outreach performances and masterclasses across elementary, middle and high schools in the city. In the Fall of 2015, the Verona Quartet will assume the position of Graduate Resident String Quartet at The Juilliard School in New York City. The Juilliard School will also present the Verona Quartet in their Lincoln Centre, Alice Tully Hall debut in May 2016.

Jonathan Vinocour, viola

ADOPTED BY MICHAEL & SUSANNA STEINBERG

Education: Princeton University; New England Conservatory of Music

Jonathan Vinocour joined the San Francisco Symphony as Principal Viola in 2009, having previously served in that position with the Saint Louis Symphony and guest principal viola of the Leipzig Gewandhaus. Originally from Rochester, NY, Vinocour is an active solo performer, and recently received First Prize in the Holland America Music Society Competition. As a result of this award, he has been featured on the Dame Myra Hess Recital Series and Live from WFMT, in Chicago. Recently, he recorded his first solo album, with the support of the Holland America Music Society. He serves as a mentor and coach to the students of the New World Symphony in Miami and is also on the faculty of the newly formed San Francisco Academy Orchestra's Artist Diploma program for orchestral training. His festival appearances include the Marlboro Music Festival, Ravinia, Prussia Cove (U.K.), Aspen Music Festival and the Tanglewood Institute. He plays a rare 1784 Lorenzo Storioni viola, on loan from the San Francisco Symphony.

Kai West, doublebass

Education: California Institute of the Arts; The Guildhall School; The San Francisco Conservatory

Kai West grew up in San Luis Obispo, California and began playing stringed instruments at age 11. By 17 he had taught himself to play guitar, bass guitar, mandolin, banjo, and drums. He left high school a year early to begin formal musical studies at California Institute of the Arts and started learning double bass after seeing the Los Angeles Philharmonic for the first time.

At 18 he was accepted to the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London after less than a year of studying the instrument. In his final year at Guildhall, he was invited by British violinist Nigel Kennedy to join his Orchestra of Life as Principal Bass and toured the UK and Continental Europe, playing in renowned concert venues including the Royal Albert Hall and the Berlin Philharmonie.

As a freelancer in the UK, Kai performed with the London Symphony Orchestra, the London Philharmonic, the London Mozart Players, and one season as guest Principal Bass with the Welsh National Opera. He regularly plays with the San Francisco Symphony and the Monterey and Modesto symphonies. Kai will soon be undertaking further graduate studies at the University of Michigan, studying with Scott Pingel. In his free time, Kai enjoys hiking, cooking with his wife, and listening to Car Talk on NPR.

Eric Zivian, piano

ADOPTED BY PAUL & LINDA CANTEY

Education: The Curtis Institute of Music; The Juilliard School; Yale School of Music

Eric Zivian is both a seasoned performer and composer, having studied composition with Oliver Knussen and Alexander Goehr. Eric's compositions have been performed widely in the United States and Japan and have earned him numerous prizes. As a pianist, Eric is a frequent guest artist on the San Francisco Conservatory's faculty chamber music series. Eric and cellist Tonya Tomkins comprise the Zivian-Tomkins Duo, a San Francisco chamber music ensemble specializing in music performed on period instruments. He is also the co-artistic director for the new Valley of the Moon Festival in Sonoma.

For the Love of Music

The Maestro Circle, Our Legacy Gift Program

The Maestro Circle honors individuals who are providing for Music in the Vineyards with a gift in their wills or other estate planning documents. All legacy gifts are retained permanently in an income producing fund that ensures the Festival will continue to be a lasting source of enjoyment for future generations.

If you have made a gift to the Festival as part of your will or estate plan, please inform Music in the Vineyards, so we can recognize your commitment through membership in the Maestro Circle. Maestro Circle members will be acknowledged annually in the Festival's summer program and other printed materials which are distributed at all concerts during the season. Circle members will also be invited to an intimate, private social event each year.

Giving Options

Bequests

You can specify in your will either a dollar amount or percentage of your estate that you wish to go to the Festival, while you retain the use of all of your assets during your lifetime.

Life Insurance

You can transfer ownership of a paid-up life insurance policy, receiving an immediate tax deduction, and eliminating taxes at the time of your death.

Retirement Benefits

Naming the Festival as beneficiary of an IRA or other retirement plan assets will result in eliminating significant estate and income taxes at the time of your death.

If you plan to make such a gift, we recommend that you first contact your financial advisor, and once plans are made, please contact Music in the Vineyards Executive Director, Evie Ayers, at 707 258 5559, evie@musicinthevineyards.org
